v.)	CONFIRMING FORFEITURE

Defendant.)

On June 7, 2013, this Court entered a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32(d)(2), based upon the Defendant's conviction at trial by the jury on Counts One, Two and Three in the Bill of Indictment and evidence already on record. (Doc. No. 180).

On June 25, 2013 through July 24, 2013, the United States published via www.forfeiture.gov, notice of this forfeiture and of the intent of the government to dispose of the forfeited property according to law, and further notifying all third parties of their right to petition the Court within sixty days from June 25, 2013 for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of any alleged legal interest in the property. It appears from the record that no such petitions have been filed. Based on the record in this case, including the defendant's plea of guilty, the Court finds, in accordance with Rule 32.2(c)(2), that the Defendant had an interest in the property that is forfeitable under the applicable statute.

It is therefore ORDERED:

In accordance with Rule 32.2(c)(2), the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture is confirmed as final. All right, title, and interest in the following property, whether real, personal, or mixed, has therefore been forfeited to the United States for disposition according to law:

One Smith & Wesson .38 caliber revolver;

One Taurus 9mm handgun; and

One Hungary 9mm handgun.

Signed: September 3, 2013

Robert J. Conrad, Jr.
